

Joint Cooperative Meeting

March 11-13, 2018

La Cantera Resort & Spa - San Antonio, Texas - 210-558-6500

Texas Agricultural Cooperative Council

"Co-ops: The First Responders to Agricultural Uncertainty"

Your Invitation to Attend...

We cordially invite you to join with one another March 11-13, 2018 at the beautiful and wonderfully-located La Cantera Resort and Spa in northwest San Antonio. In the ag business, each year brings its own set of unique challenges. However, this year, many of our TACC members were really put to the test and, we once again, witnessed the strength, resilience, and unity a co-op brings in times of adversity. This year's theme, "Co-ops: The First Responders to Agricultural Uncertainty," is meant to capture and celebrate the essence of the co-op business model!

To recharge the batteries, we are back in San Antonio where you'll find a variety of family attractions, a wide array of shopping venues, and first-class dining. The La Cantera Resort and Spa offers many resort activities and a premiere golf course in a relaxing hill country setting.

Our program promises to be informative, engaging, and entertaining! Featured speakers include a TV star from the family favorite "Father Knows Best," a national speaker rated as one of the top 10 most inspirational people in the world by the Wall Street Journal, and a well-known ag economics professor from Purdue University. Our breakouts will deliver timely industry updates, address pressing labor issues, and provide essential legal assistance.

The stage is set at one of our most popular locations for a productive and rewarding experience! Make plans to join your friends and family during spring break as we celebrate one of the most remarkable industries in one of the best cities in America!

9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

When Lauren Chapin was a little girl, she made a lasting impression on millions of TV viewers and is still remembered as "Kathy Anderson," or "Kitten" from the classic "Father Knows Best" series, which ran on syndicated television for nine years.

As a popular and talented child actress, Lauren starred in many TV and radio programs as well as movies and commercials. She was awarded five JR. Emmy's for Best Child Actress.

Unfortunately, Lauren only enjoyed the model family on TV. Behind-the-scenes, she suffered in an abusive home that led her down a dark path once her initial TV fame passed. By the grace of God, Lauren found her way to a new beginning that has led her to inspire thousands by sharing her story and His word.

Lauren's successful career has spanned 45-years. She has managed singers and actors, such as Jennifer Love Hewitt of Party of Five. She is an author and ordained minister. Lauren has been awarded "Honorable Mayor" of three cities in the states of Oklahoma, Texas and Florida for her numerous charity activities, raising well over two million dollars for underprivileged and abused children.

She has appeared on the "Regis and Kathy Lee Show", "The Today Show", "Entertainment Tonight", "The Oprah Winfrey Show", "The Late, Late Night Show" and "E! True Hollywood Stories" presented a two-hour special on Lauren's life.

You will not want to miss Lauren's compelling story of fame, heartache, and redemption.

Breakout Sessions

- ◇ One breakout is always reserved for the most high-profile regulatory agencies impacting farmers and cooperatives --- including the labor department and OSHA. This year, this session will include information regarding new fees, regulations, and regulatory trends.
- ◇ Finding and keeping good labor, especially during trying times, is an on-going challenge. We'll have an H2A / guestworker expert to discuss properly securing foreign labor from numerous countries and guide you in all the requirements and compliance paperwork.
- ◇ Organizational tax affairs are always of top concern, so plenty of time has been devoted to this topic with the leading co-op CPA in the state. He has seen it all and will report on recent cases of interest, the new federal tax law, as well as answer your personal tax questions.
- ◇ One session will be dedicated to this state's premier co-op attorney, Gary McLaren. He will discuss case examples of legal proceedings – all in an effort to better co-op directors, CEOs, and the firm itself. Come share legal concerns that have been keeping you up at night --- he is FREE to participants during the meeting and will be available to answer questions privately.
- ◇ This breakout session has two entirely different segments. These days many agribusiness firms have an internship program. Is your co-op ripe to try this out? Learn all the in's and out's of selecting, hosting, dealing with, and advantages of having one at this session and yes being your questions. A second major focus is a fun-filled skit with the target of exploring popular ways of working with board of director teams and cooperating with others.
