Seldom do you see a conservative political newspaper editor ---- much less in Austin, Texas ---- but that is what is in store for those attending the TACC – PAC Breakfast. Matt Mackowiak is not only editor of THE political newspaper around the State Capitol, he also serves as Travis County Republican Chair in Austin, regarded by many as a very liberal city. He once served as press secretary for Texas' U. S. Senator – Kay Bailey Hutchison. He has also led many successful political campaigns for conservative lawmakers across the country. Hear his story of how he has a presence and operates in a very contentious environment.

Please detach along the dotted line, retain top portion for your records and mail bottom section, along with check, to:
TACC-PAC, 1111 North Interstate Highway 35, Suite 208, Round Rock, Texas 78664
MAKE CHECK PAYABLE TO "TACC-PAC"

Important Note: Texas political action committee finance laws prohibit the acceptance of corporate or cooperative checks for this type of function; therefore, ONLY PERSONAL checks and cash can be accepted. State law requires the names and addresses of each contributor. This form may be duplicated.
